My Name is John Ballin, I’m an entrant and I just signed in, here is my home page

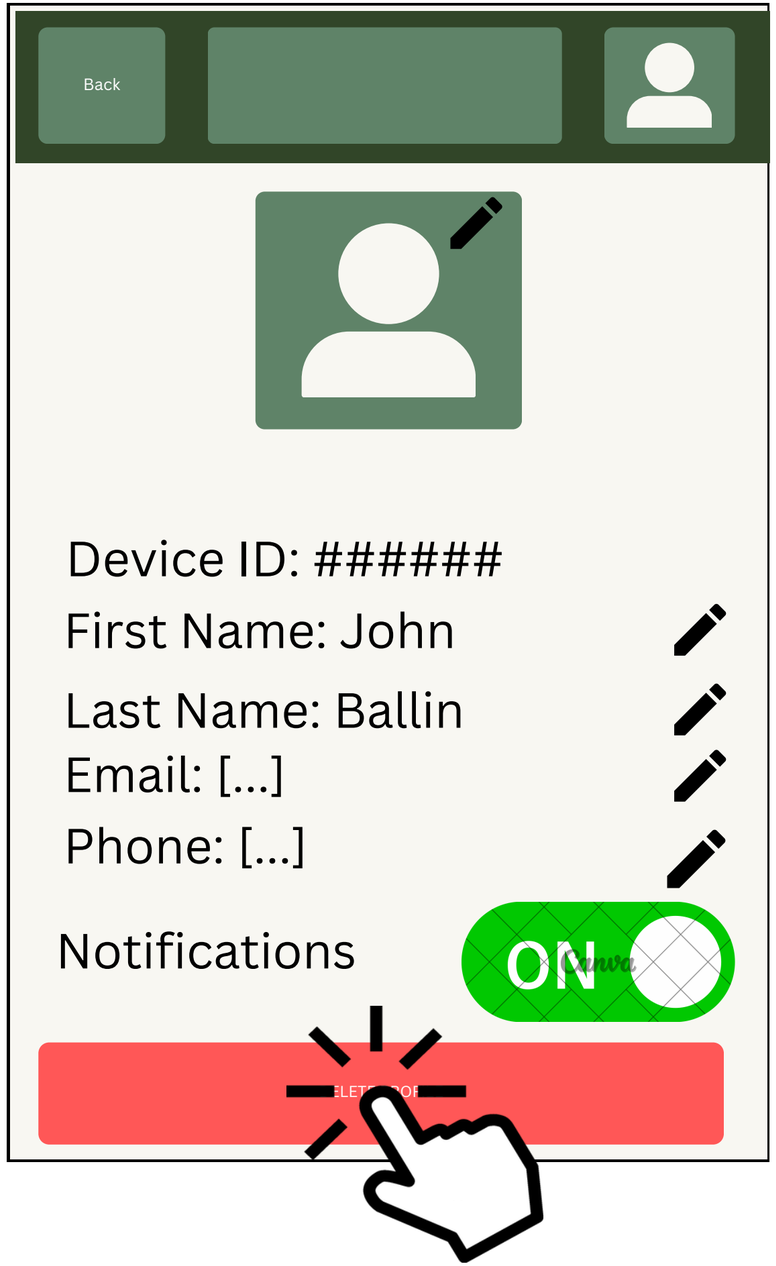

I wanna change My profile details, so i’m gonna click the profile button in the top right.

At the profile page, I see the app has remembered my Device ID so I don’t have to sign in with a username and password, Nice.

I see I can edit my info and profile pic if I need by pressing the pencil button and even opt out of notifications if I want to but pressing the on/off button, I’ll keep it on for now.

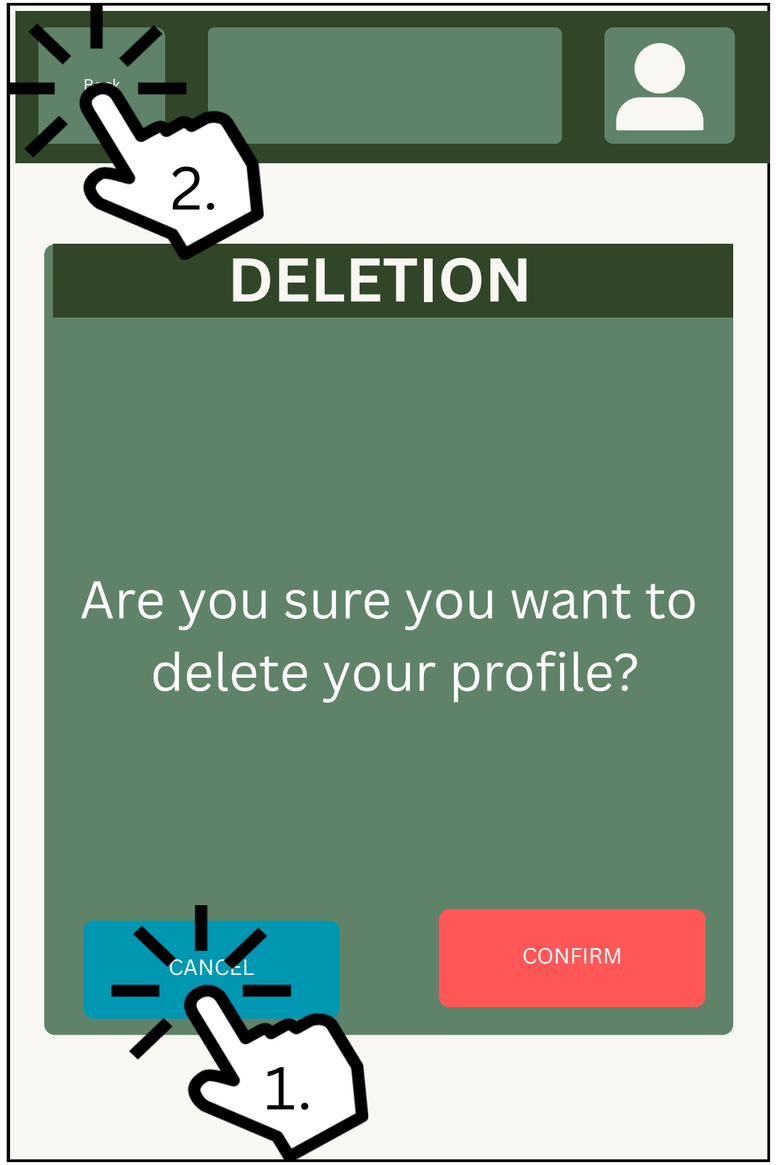

Whoops! My finger accidentely slipped and pressed the delete profile button Oh no!

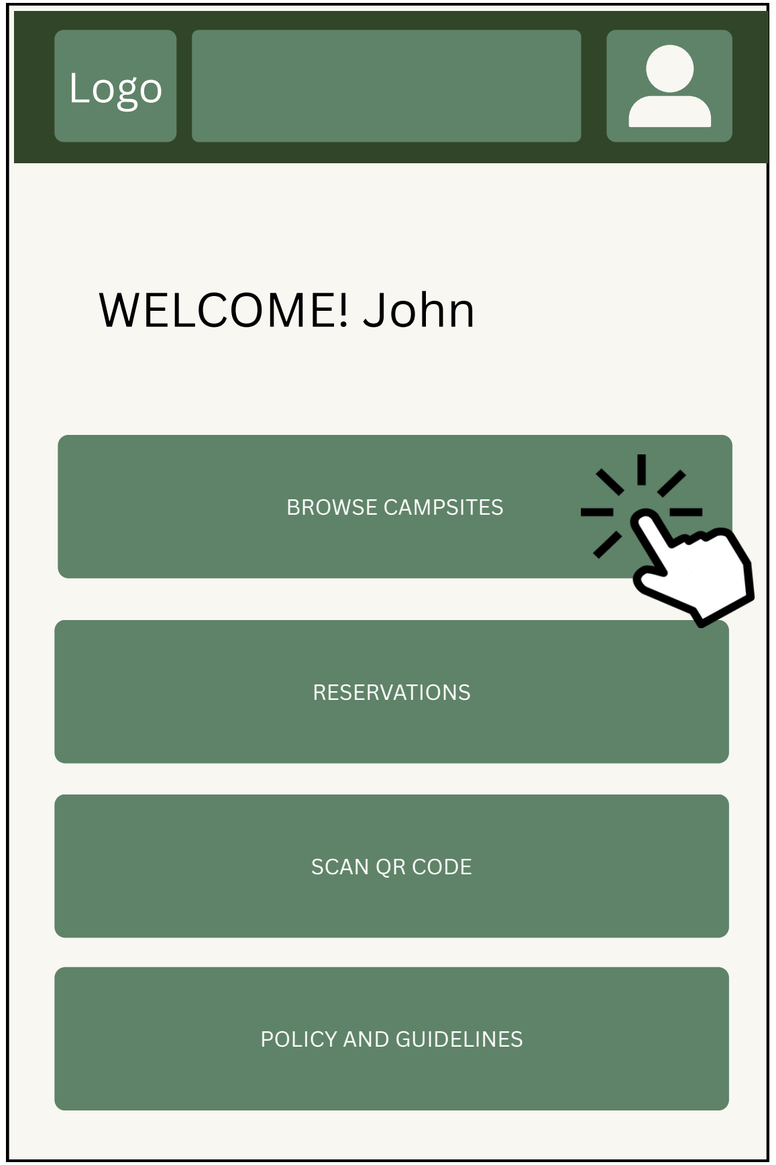

Good thing There’s a confirm button and I didn’t delete my profile

I’m gonna click the cancel button to return back to my profile

Since I don’t want to change anything in my profile, i’m going to hit the back button in the top left to head back to the home menu

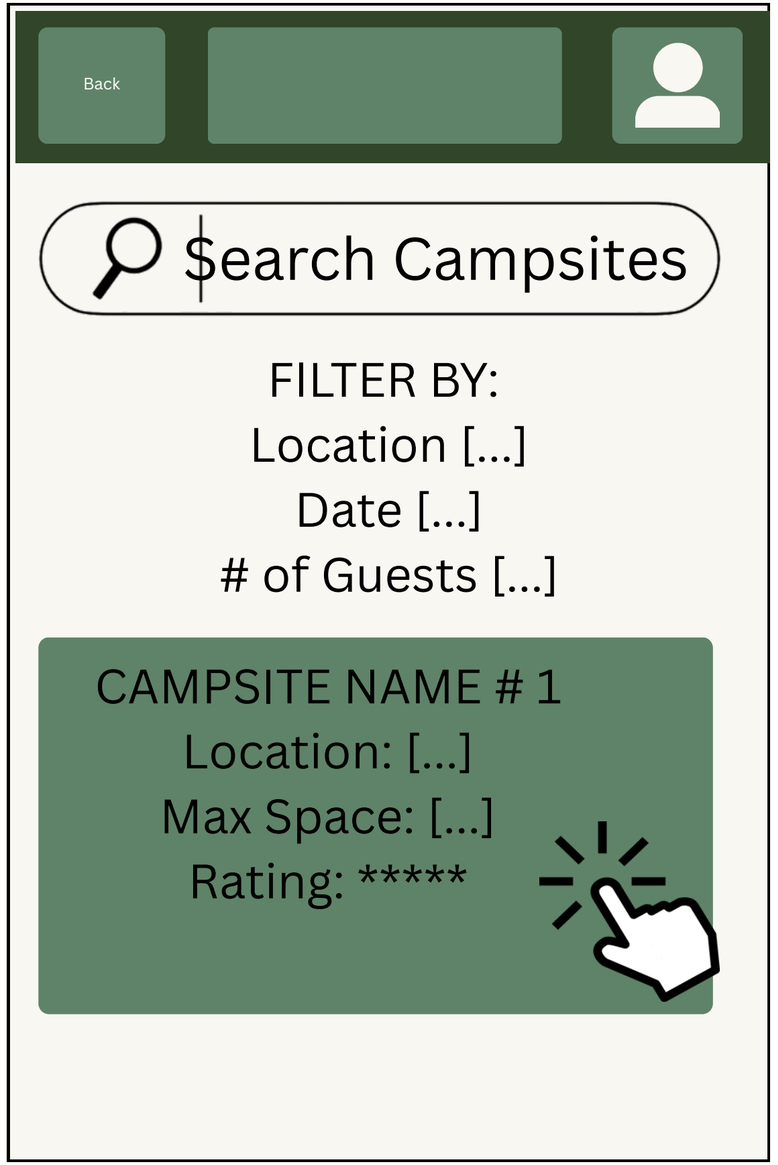

With my profile complete, I wanna browse some campsites, so I’m gonna click the “browse campsites” button to well, browse Campsites

I search for a campsite in the search bar and apply some filters to find the perfect campsite for me, campsite #1!

I click on the campsite to view its details

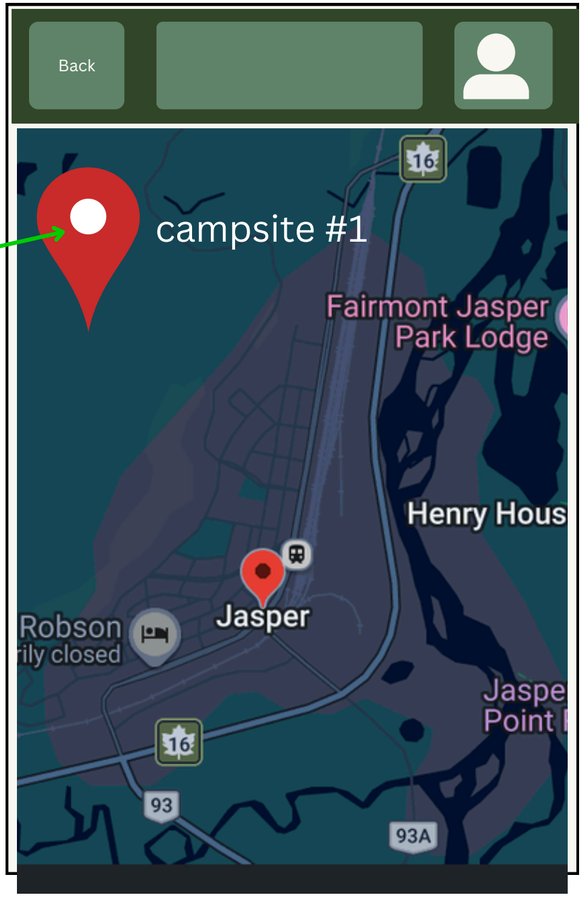

Viewing the details, campsite #1 looks great.

I want to view the geolocation so I press the little location pin to view the campsite on a map.

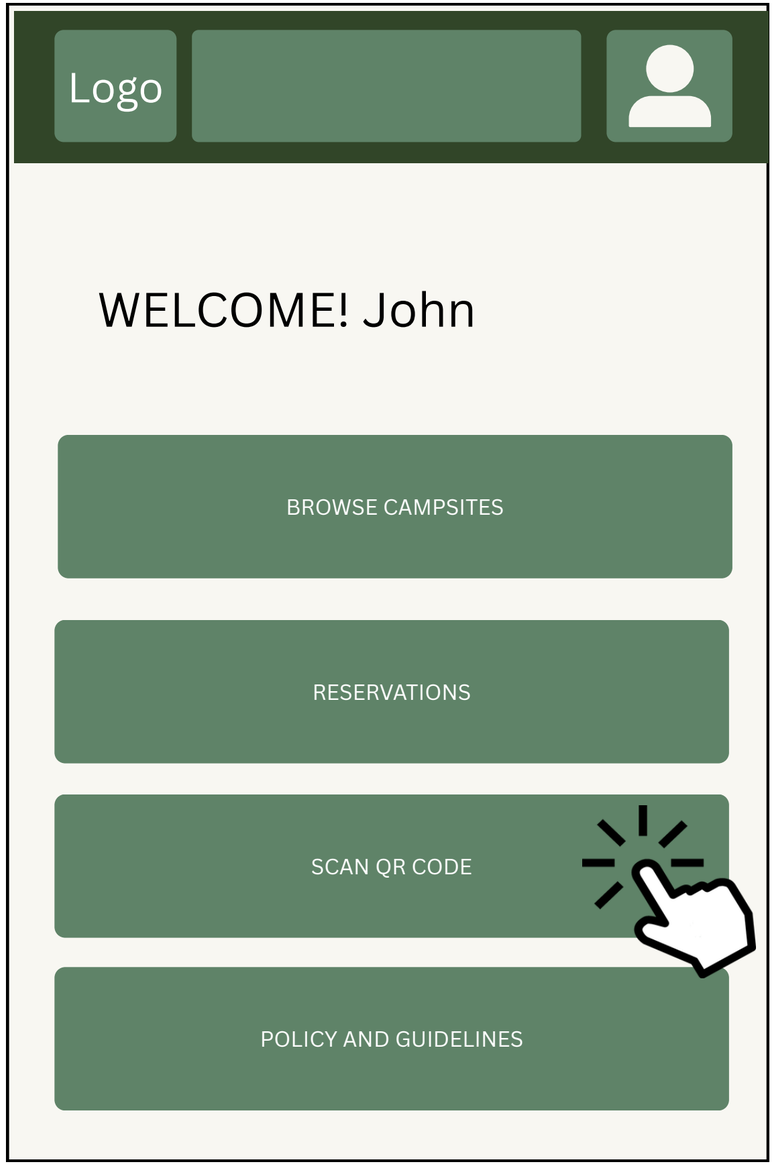

yup looks good, I’m gonna press the join lottery for a shot to get this campsite with everything booked I’m heading back to the home menu

while taking a stroll, I see a advert for a campsite with a QR code on it, interested I click on the “SCAN QR code” button on the home page to scan it

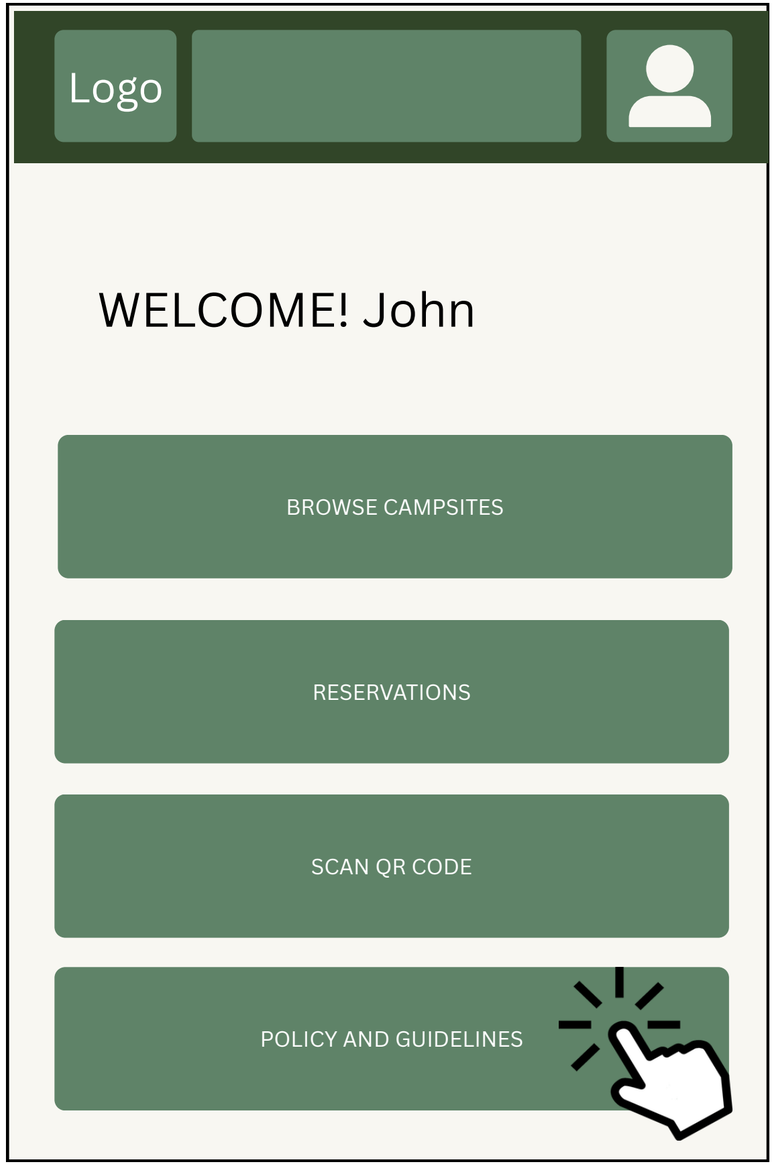

The camera pops up and I line up the QR code, once it picks up the QR code it takes me too--

It takes me directly to the details page of campsite #2, great, liking what I see, I’m gonna also join the lottery for this one as well!

While I wait to see if I won/lost the lottery, I’m gonna check the policy and guidelines on the home page by clicking on the “Policy and Guidelines” button

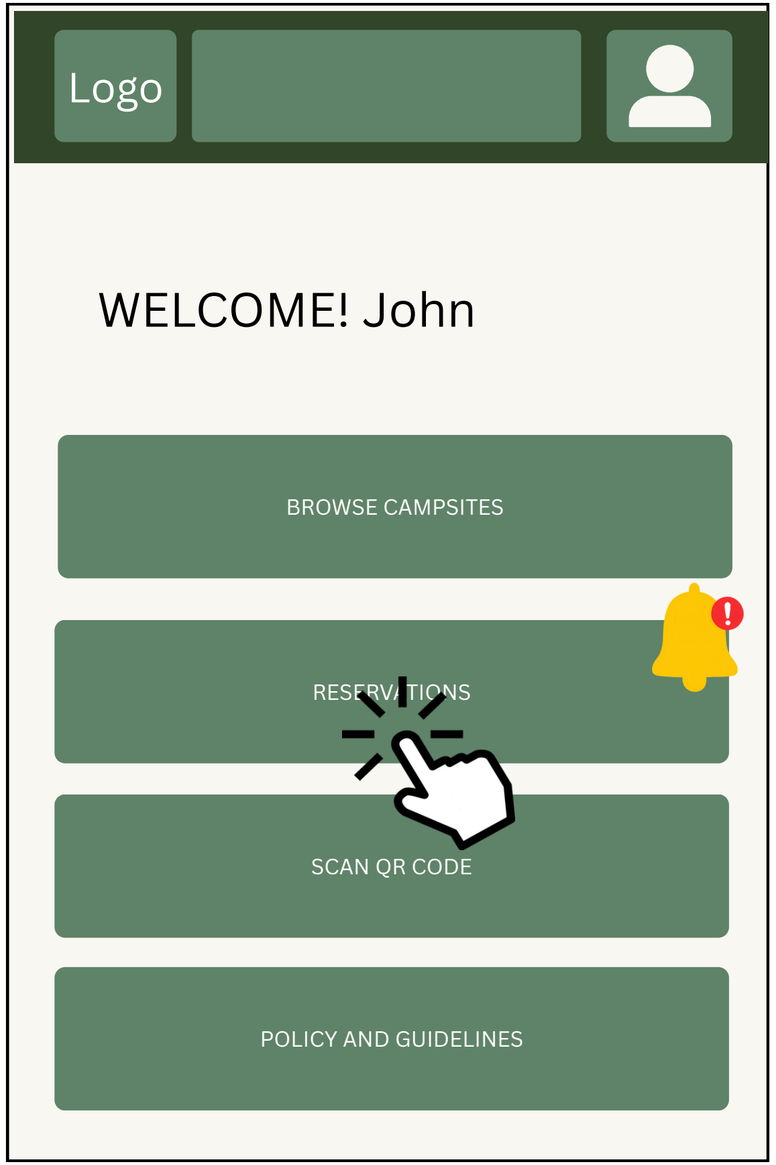

I see only one rules, to follow @g.doesdraws on Instagram,

I heard this G.doesdraws fella draws characters for a comic he’s one day gonna make, I better check em out!

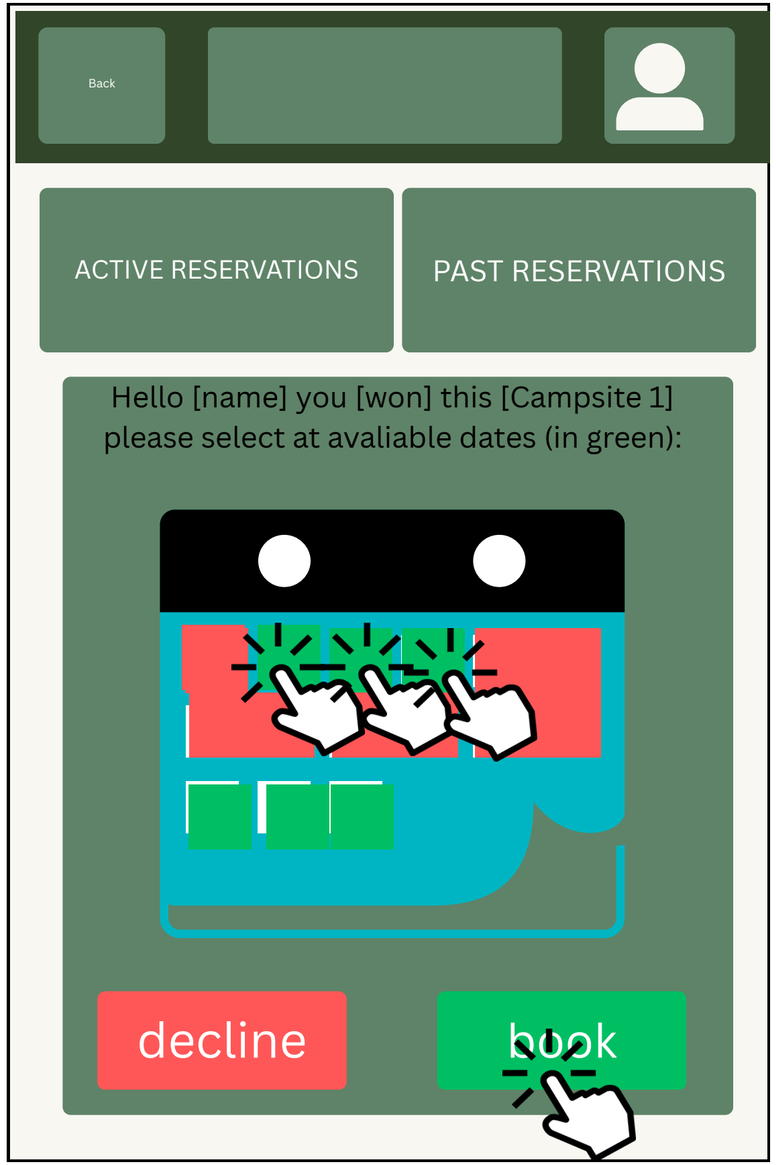

DING! I just recieved a notfication that I won a campsite lottery, nice! I better check it out

There seems to be something to see in the reservations menu. Lemme click on it.

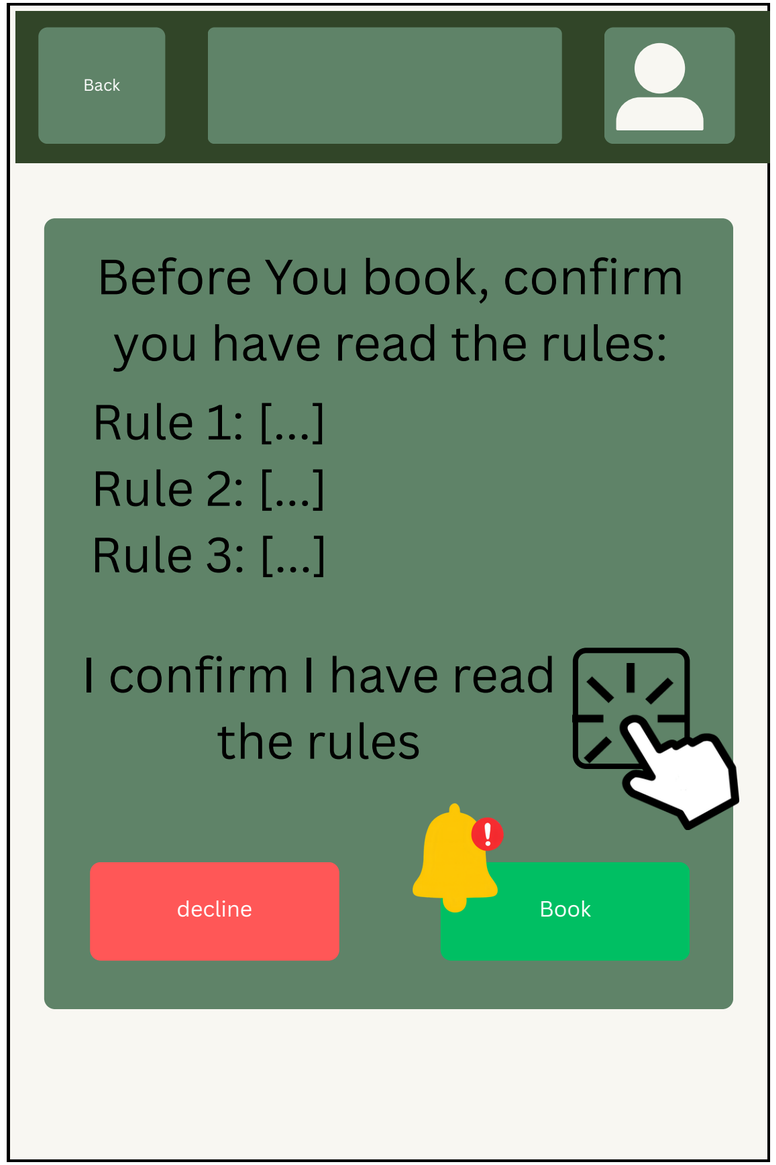

At the Reservations I see I won on campsite 1, lets go! I The dates I’m looking for are, highlighted in green meaning they’re available, so I select the dates and hit book. So easy!

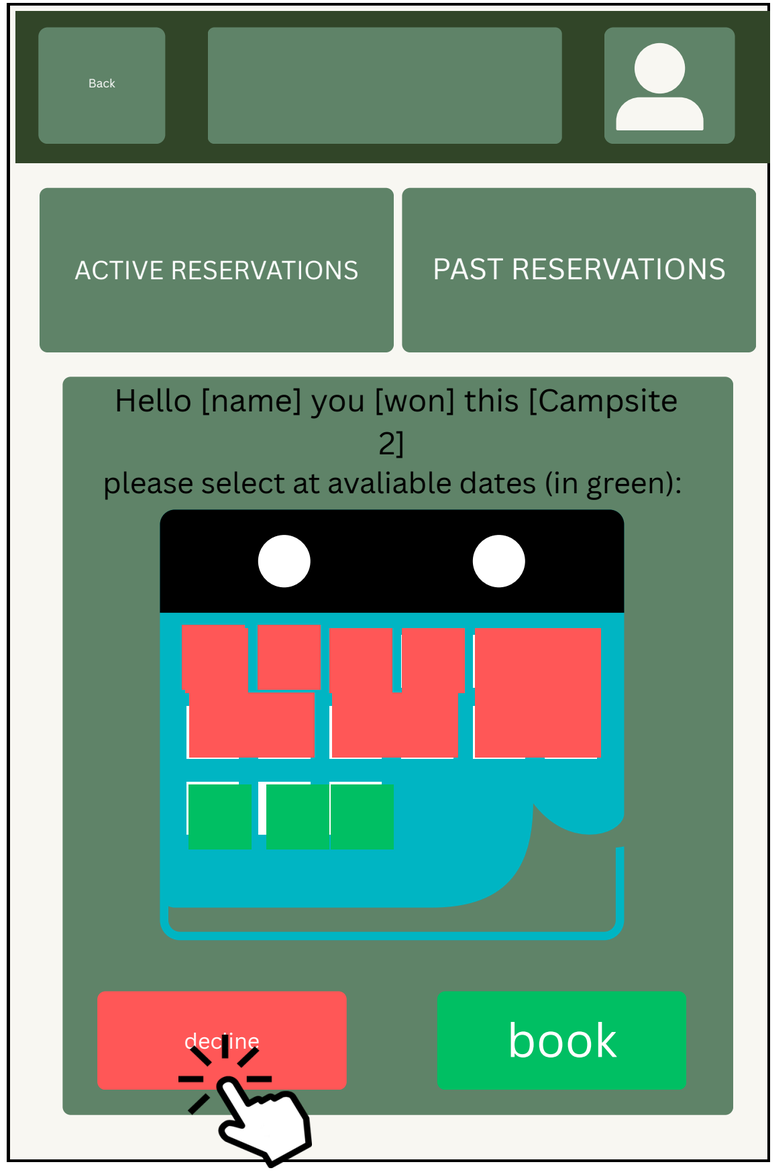

The campsite owner wants me to to review their rules before I book, I pretend to read them, hit confirm and then book my campsite. Baddabing baddaboom, John Ballin is going camping!

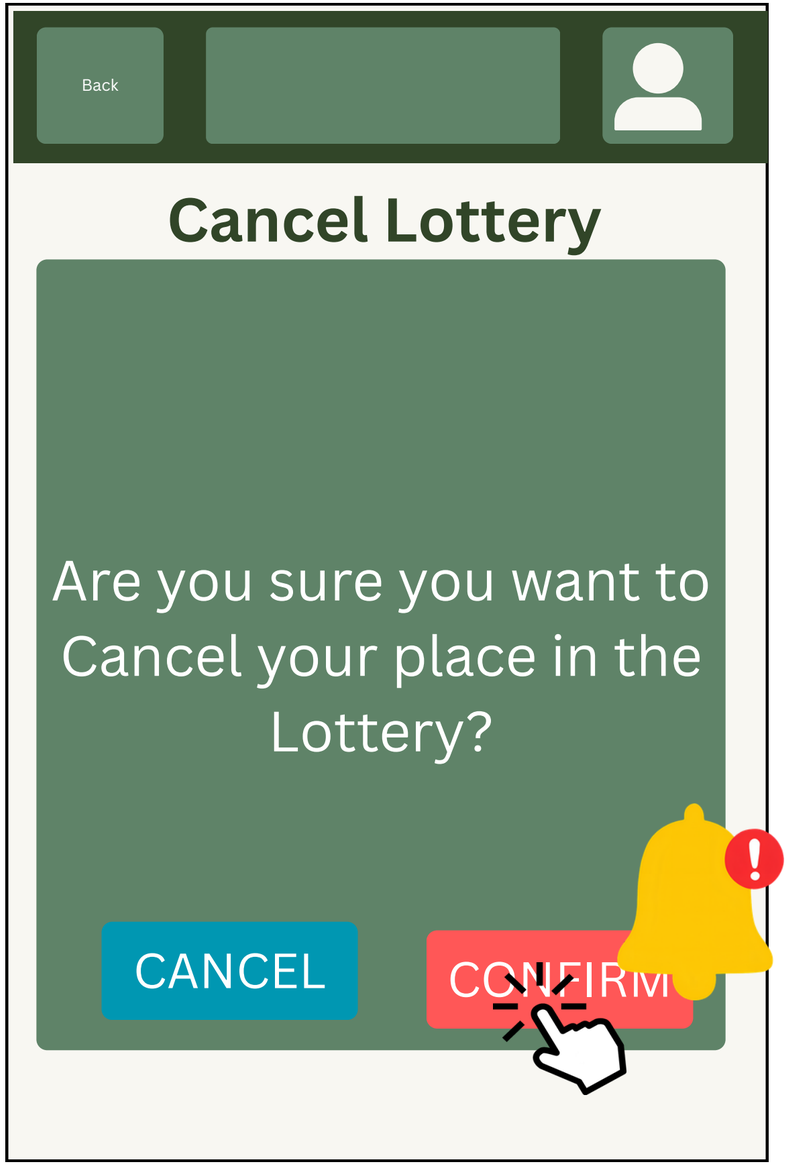

Oh look! I got a notification confirming my booking, and a downloadable csv file I can keep with my booking details.

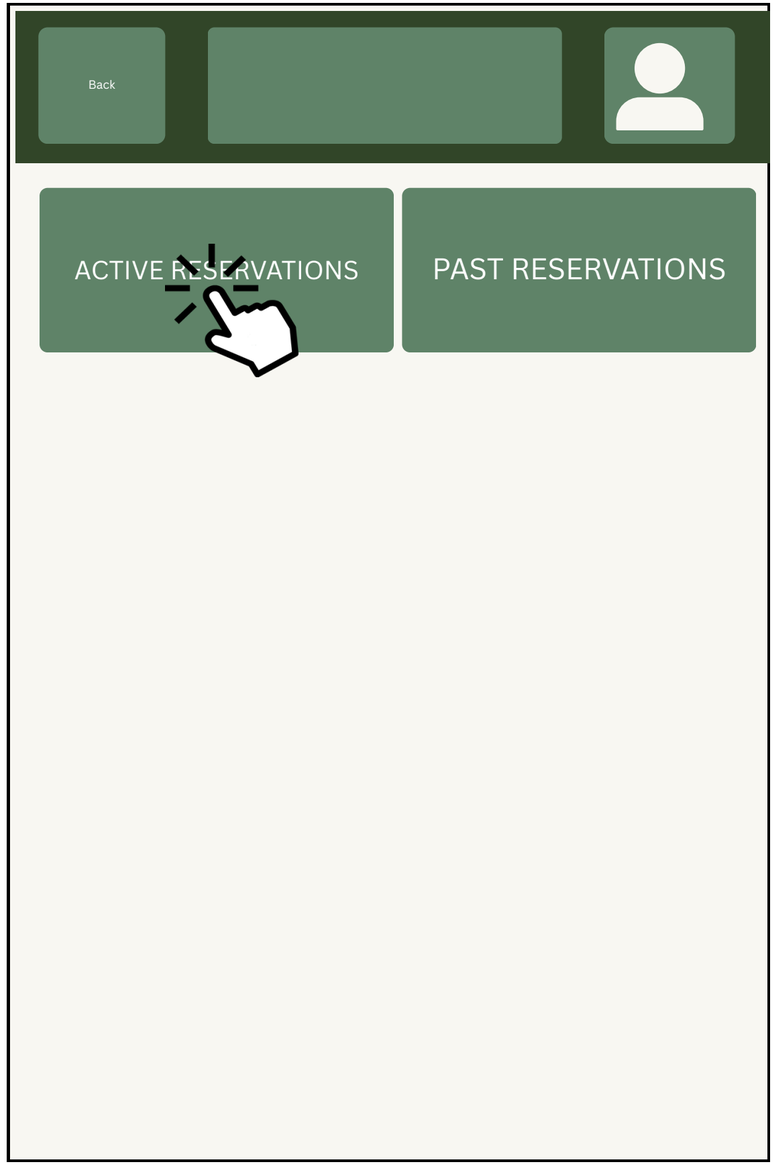

I scroll down and What the heck! Dangnabbit the dates I want to go camping aren’t available anymore! (As intuitively shown by the red boxes on the calendar) I guess I’ll decline. No camping for me 😪

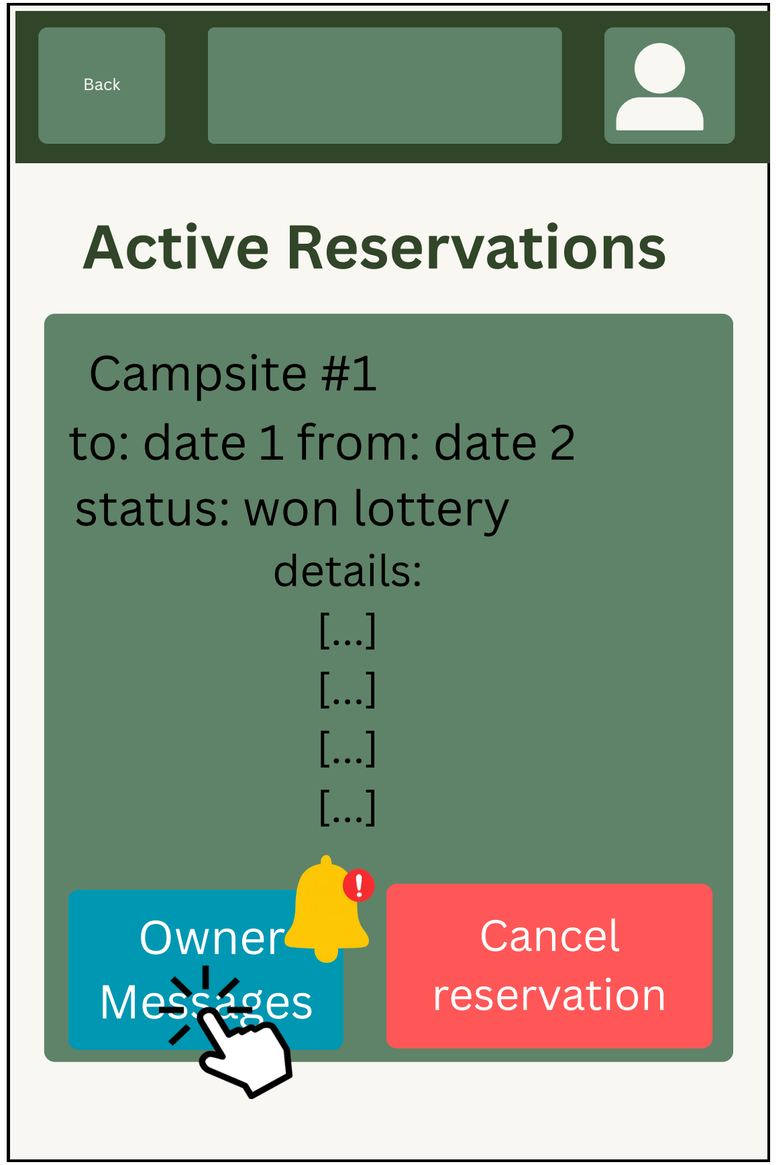

Scenario 1: Since the dates aren’t available that I want to book, I’ll be giving up my place in the lottery. I get a handy dandy confirm screen to make sure I don’t give up my prized lottery spot by accident!

If I wanna check on or edit my active reservations imma click on the active reservations button in the top left

Cancel reservation

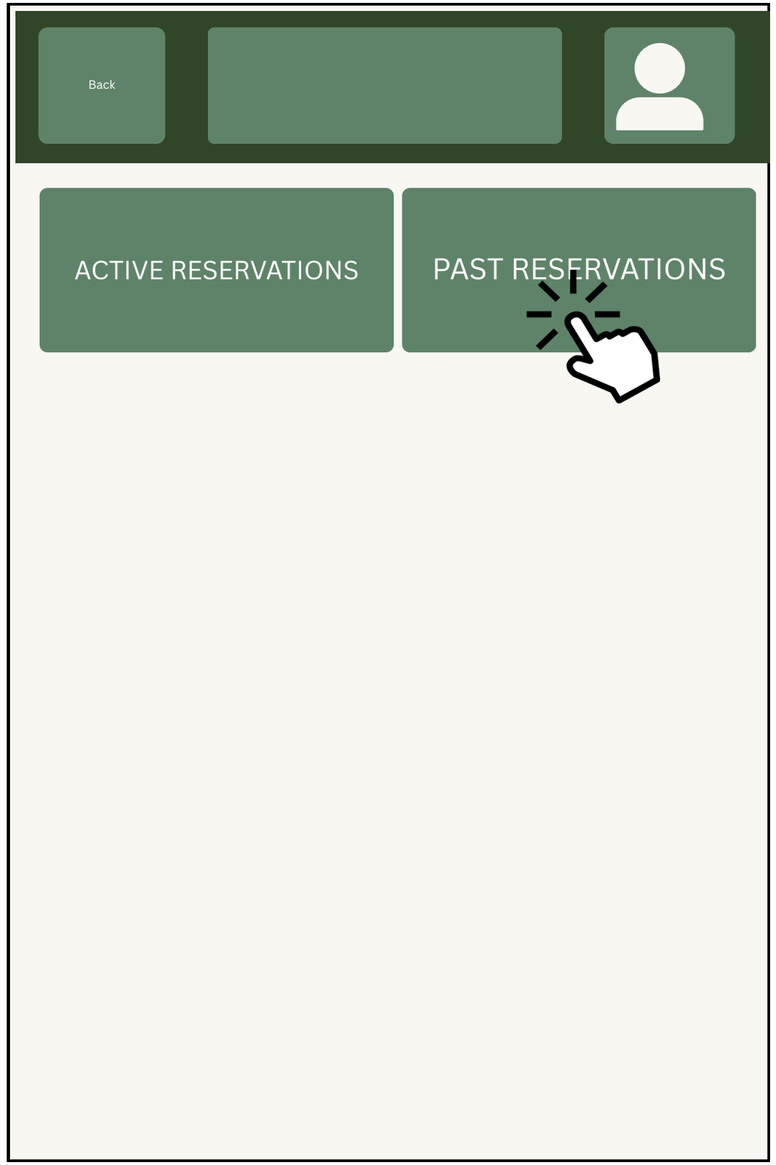

Yo what’s up with this guy?? I am not going near this campsite. Lemme cancel!

On second thought... I really want to go camping.

I just got home from camping. Damn I should’ve cancelled when I got the owner’s messages. Lemme give him a bad review so people STAY AWAY

1 star. What that guy deserves.
