Admin Home Page

At the start it will show a list of buttons, corresponding to different features. Admin can click which one they want to view.

The top bar has the app logo, the current view they are on, and their profile image.

The “Admin View” at the top is a button that allows the admin user to switch from being admin to entrant to campsite owner.

Campsite Home Page

User clicked the campsite button on homepage, User/admin can then either browse by going down the list or they can search a specific campsite.

The top bar has a back button, search bar, and their profile.

This page lists all registered campsites in a scrollable list (lazy column).

Campsite Information

Say the admin/user clicked on campsite #1 from campsites page, it goes to this page.

This page lists all relevant information related to the campsite that was clicked on, including an img gallery of promotional images.

Admin can choose to delete campsite.

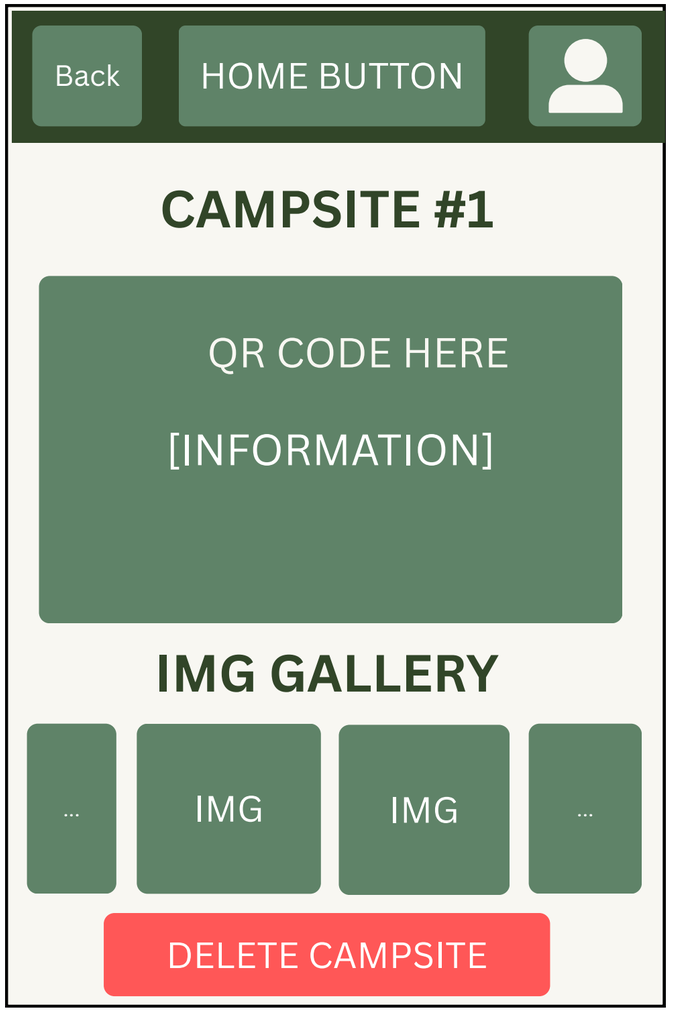

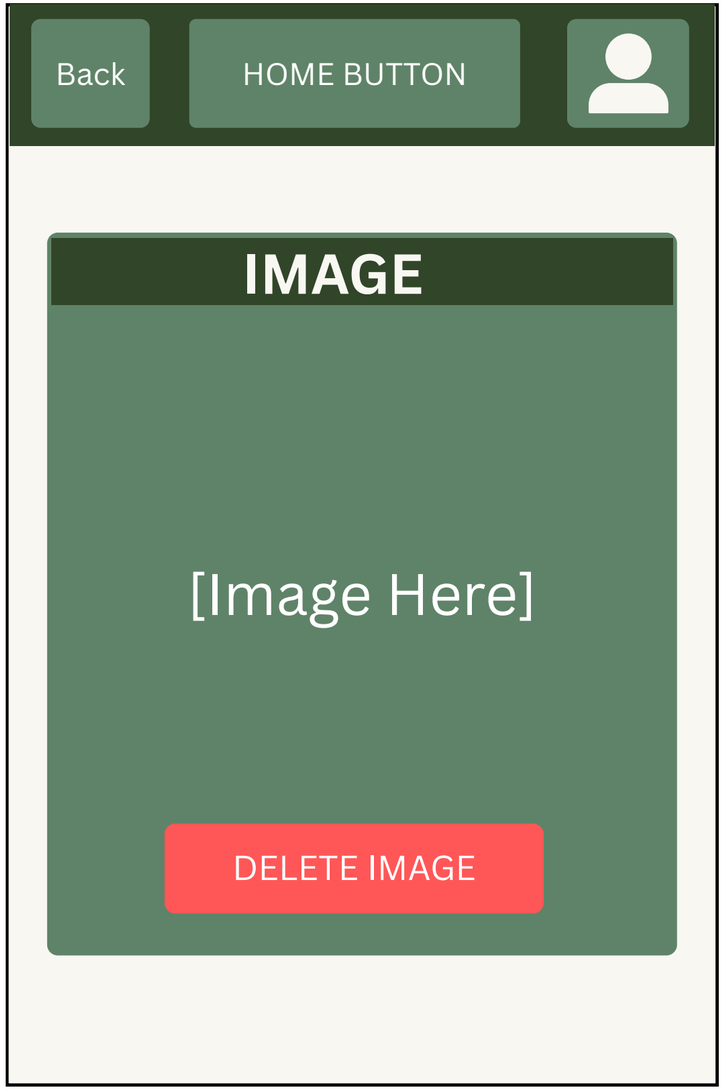

Image Close Up

This page shows up close image after it was clicked on from the campsite information page.

Admin can choose to delete image related to the campsite.

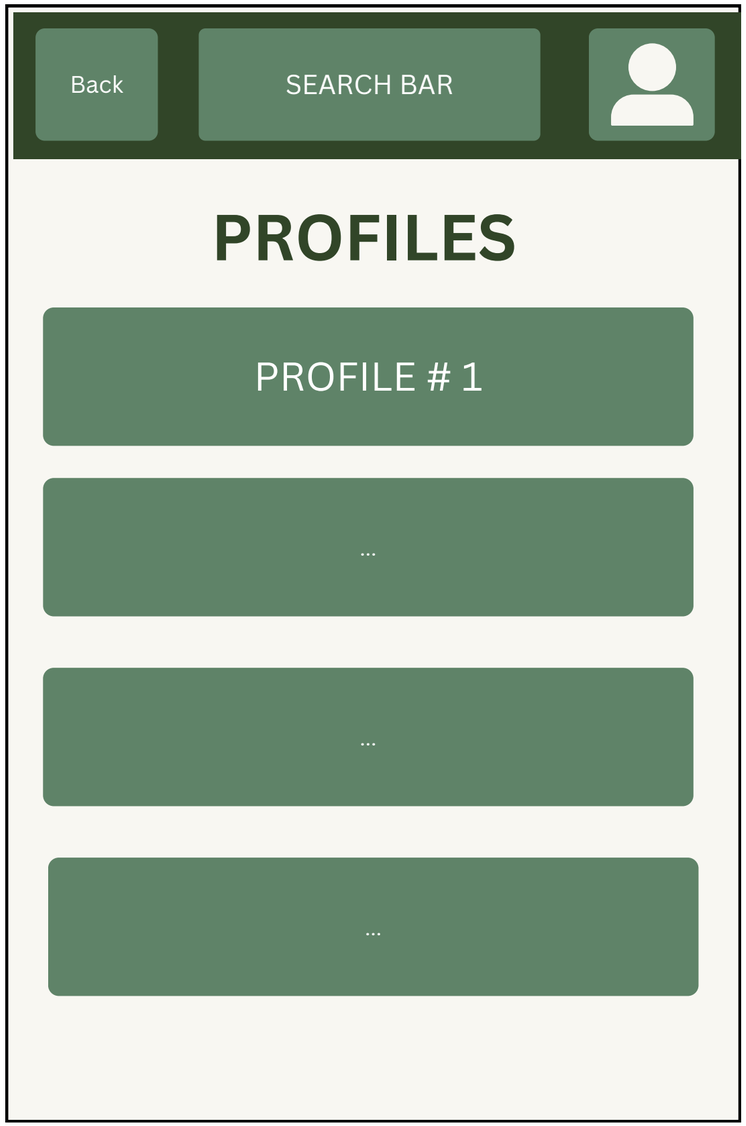

Profile Home Page

Say the admin/user clicked the profile button from the homepage.

This page lists all profiles in a scrollable list (lazy column).

So user/admin can then either browse by going down the list or they can search a specific profile.

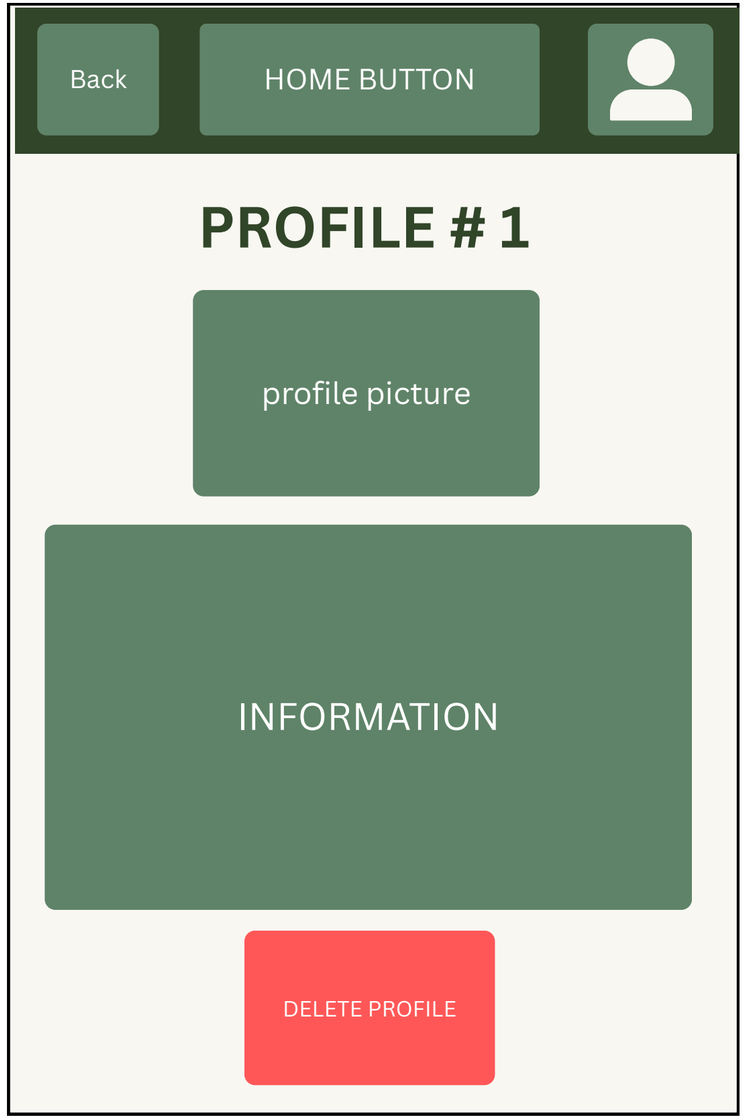

Profile Information

Say the admin/user clicked on profile #1 from profiles page, it goes to this page.

This page lists all relevant information related to the profile that was clicked on.

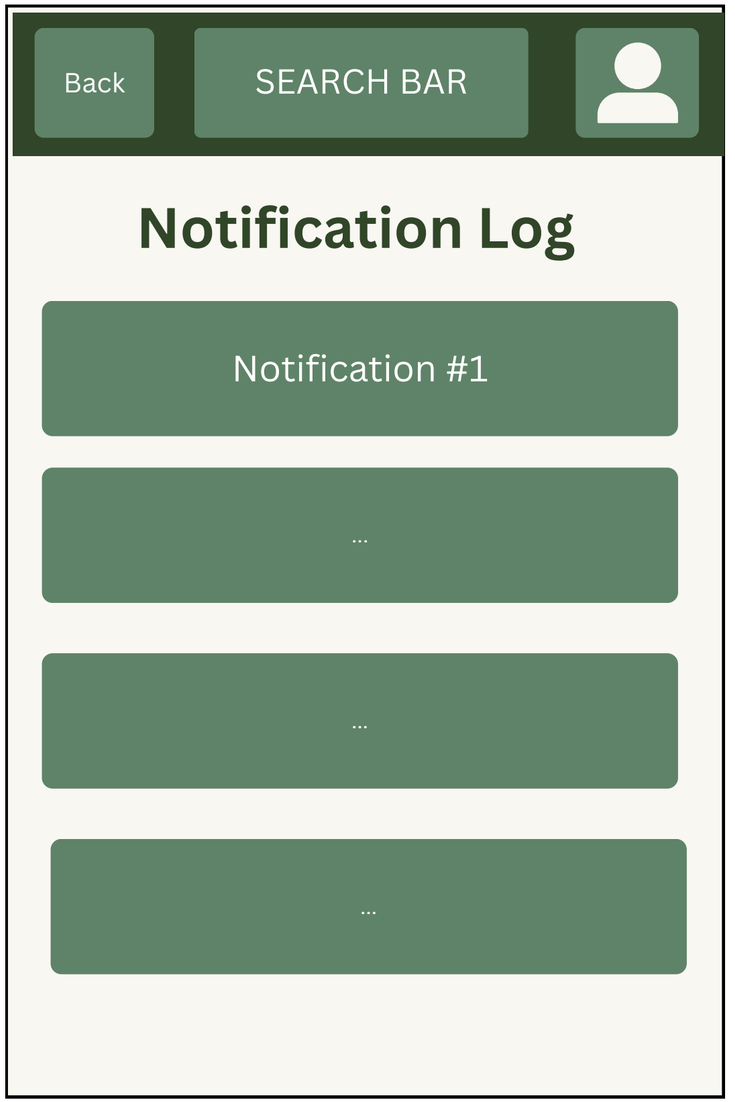

Admin can choose to delete profile, but it doesn’t delete the entrant’s account.

Notifications Home Page

If user/admin clicked notifcations button from homepage.

This page lists all notifications in a scrollable list (lazy column).

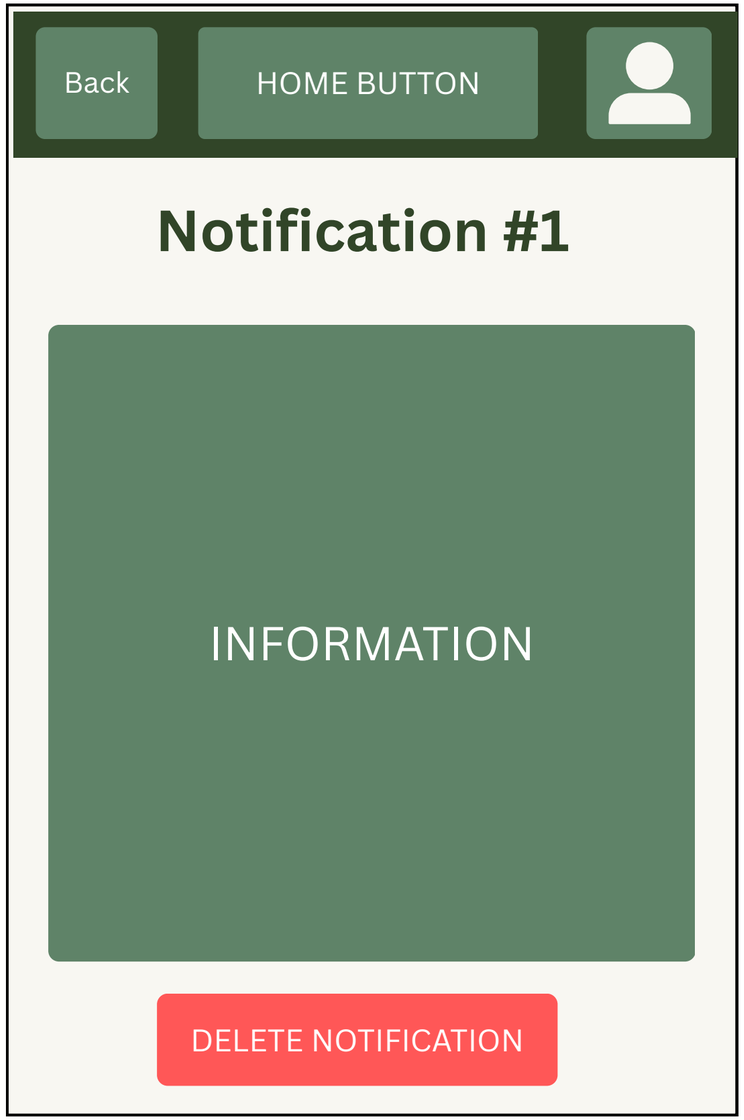

Notification Information

Say the admin/user clicked on notification #1 from notification page, it goes to this page.

This page lists all relevant information related to the notification that was clicked on.

Admin can choose to delete notification.

Messages Home Page

If user/admin clicked messages button from homepage.

This page lists all messages from campsite owner’s to the entrants in a scrollable list (lazy column).

The user/admin can search/browse the messages.

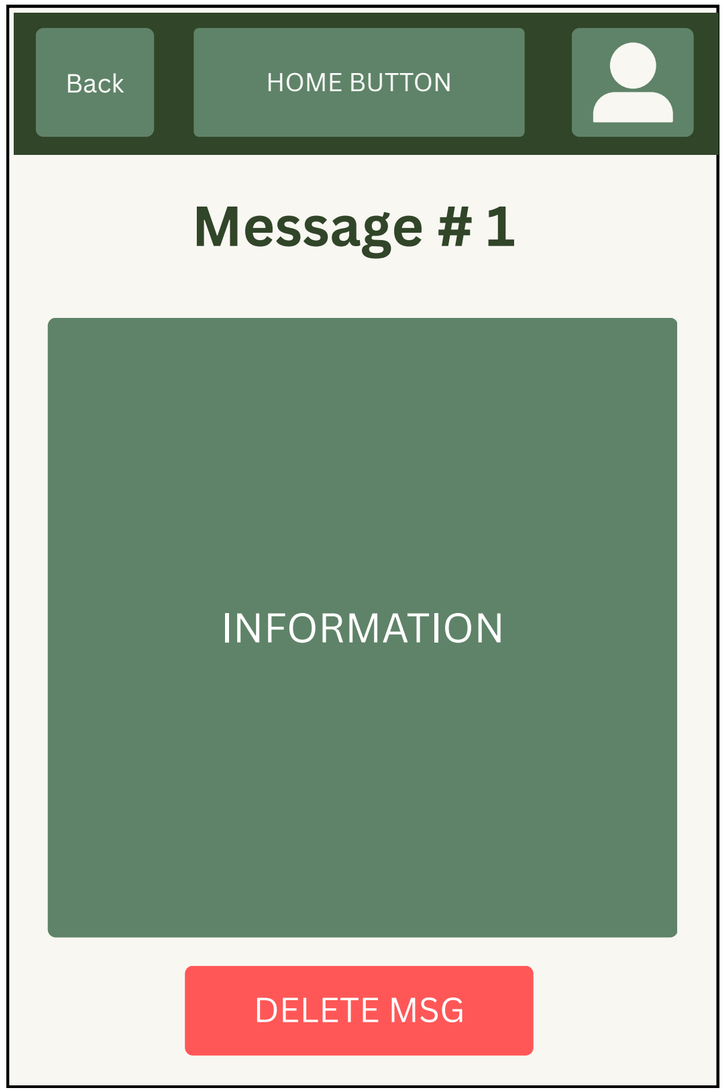

Message Information

Say the admin/user clicked on mesage #1 from messages page, it goes to this page.

This page lists all relevant information related to the message that was clicked on.

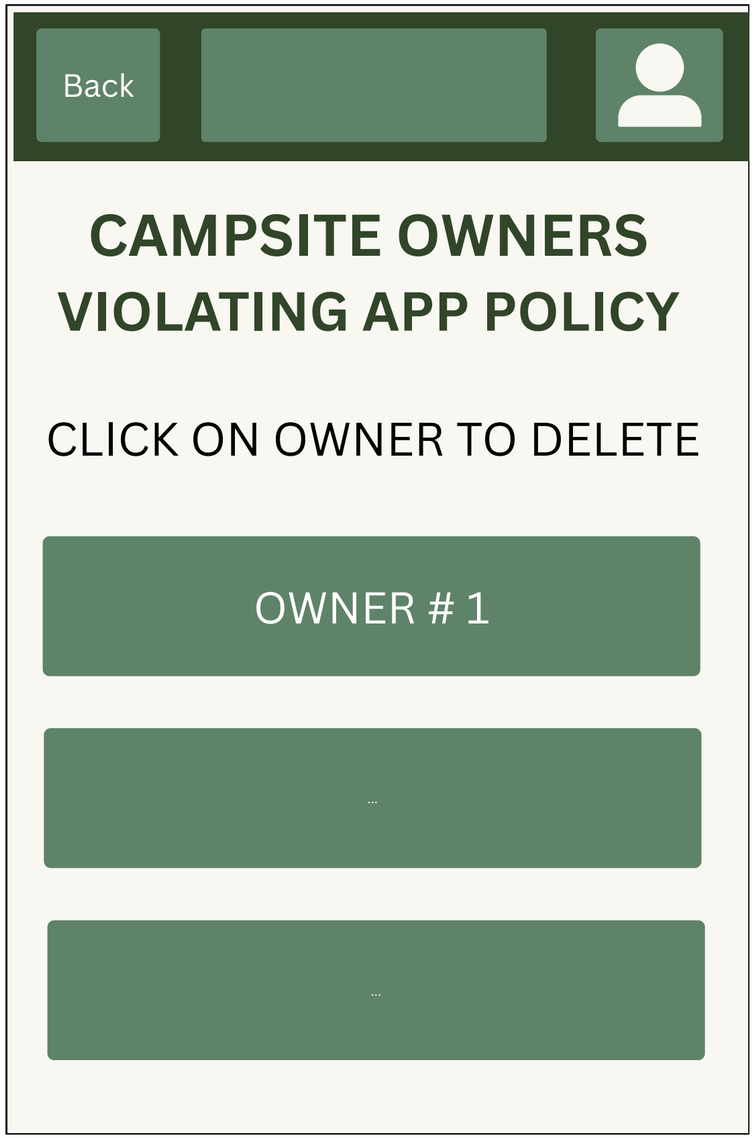

Admin can choose to delete message if they want.

Owners violating app policy page

This page lists all owner’s violating the app policy (lazy column)

Description that tells user on how to delete the owner’s account. (Clicking on it)

Delete Confirmation

Any page that had a delete button will lead to this page, we made it so the user doesn’t accidentally delete something on accident. So confirms delete.

